

Mathematics professor at MSU taught them a variety of different subjects but had particularly enjoyed algebra and geometry. He had also enjoyed literature and history. He was interested in the natural sciences.

After university he had joined the army. He had been promoted to captain in 1940. Due to the expense of the war and communist influence in Ukraine, the government decided not to pay him his full pay. He had to live off what he meant and sometimes even less. They were not able to afford a house so he stayed in a hotel.

He died in 1945.

He had a wife and two children.
One son and one daughter. His wife died in 1945. His son became a teacher and his daughter became a nurse.

- Komsomol member since 1930. Interested in Zhdanov's philosophy, had no enemies, became minister in the college president.

- Komsomol member who was a teacher. Interested in Zhdanov's philosophy, had no enemies, but was not interested in politics.

LOMOMOVA - had a husband who was a teacher and a mother of three children.